

Miss Redden's English Class

December 5th – December 9th

All Classes:

Friday: Vocabulary Quiz #11

Sixth Grade: Students will continue their unit on adjectives. This week, they will focus on definite and indefinite articles, numerical adjectives, adjectives as subject complements, and comparative and superlative adjectives.

Seventh Grade: Students will begin their unit on verbs. This week, they will focus on transitive and intransitive verbs, “troublesome verbs” (i.e., lie and lay, sat and set, rise and raise, etc.), linking verbs, and active and passive verbs.

Eighth Grade: Students will begin their unit on verbs. This week, they will focus on transitive and intransitive verbs, and “troublesome verbs” (i.e., lie and lay, sat and set, rise and raise, etc.), linking verbs, active and passive voices, simple, progressive and perfect tenses, and indicative, imperative, and emphatic moods.

High School: Students will wrap-up their unit on parts of speech and begin preparing for a test over the material.
