

Parents,

This is not a letter I wanted to send to you, but I will not be able to finish out the school year in person. Over Spring Break, I slipped and broke my ankle in three places. Due to this injury, I will be having surgery and am not permitted to return to in person for the remainder of the year. Luckily, we have all the procedures in place so that I can finish out the year teaching virtually! I will be in the classroom virtually, with Mrs. Kempf in the classroom Monday-Thursday and Mr. Bradley on Fridays. You can still contact me just as you have been all year. Nothing will change except that I will not be physically there.

We started this year with so many uncertainties and have to make many changes and adapt along the way. Though it has been difficult, giving the nature of the year, it has been one of the great joys of my life to get to spend this year in person with your children; getting to know them and help mold them in any way I can. Thank you for trusting me to help shape their academic journeys – it is not a responsibility I take lightly.

Again, if you have any questions, comments, or concerns do not hesitate to reach out.

Best,
Miss Redden
